Old Torrance Neighborhood Association Meeting, March 21st, 2012

President Todd Hays opened the meeting with greetings and introduction of Association Officers.

Treasurer's Report from Fern Ruiz: Bank Balance of $3,920.00 and $705.00 has been taken in. No expenses since January 2012.

Since January, a $100.00 donation has been made to the Torrance Theater Company.

Proposed Donations:

The Switzer Center	$100.00
Torrance Education Foundation	$100.00
Torrance Cultural Arts Center Foundation	$100.00
Torrance Historical Society Rock around the Block	$100.00
City of Torrance Employee Variety Show	$50.00 & $30.00 Ad
Armed Forces Parade	100.00

A total of $580.00 in donations was proposed. President Hays asked for a motion, which was made and then seconded by Maureen O'Donnell.. The OTNA members voted unanimously to approve the slate of donations. President Hays wanted to make sure everyone knew that all the money that comes in, goes back out. "We spend our money wisely", he said.

Charles Payne founded OTNA's Clean-Up Day, which has been set for Saturday, April 7th at El Prado Park on the NE end of the park from 9am to 11am.

Debbie Hays announced that ExxonMobil will, once again, be a sponsor for Easter in El Prado Park. It will be held Sunday, April 8th at 10am.

Janet Payne, an ex-President and Founder of OTNA, gave us a visual walk-through of the decades with a pictorial presentation of our city (compliments of the Torrance Historical Society's photo archives). Her presentation was very well received by the large audience.

April 28th, OTNA is partnering with the Torrance Historical Society to present 100 years of Torrance History at the Toyota Museum. Louis Zamperini will be there to autograph his latest "Unbroken" book.

Door prize drawing, Adjourned meeting at 9:13pm and reminded people to sign-up for the Clean-Up Day.

Respectfully submitted: Nancy Saiz, Secretary April 3, 2012
