March 2017

Happy (almost) Spring OTNA Members —

Next week, on Wednesday, March 15th, we'll be taking a bite out of crime! The men and women on the Torrance Police Dept. (TPD) aren't the only ones who keep Torrance rated the 10th safest city in America. Our TPD K-9s are top dog when it comes to locating and apprehending felony suspects and evidence.

OTNA invites you to come meet the TPD team who takes a bite out of crime, and keeps our City pawsitively safe! Officer Lara will be there with his partner Nemo and Officer Ruiz with his partner Gero. See enclosed flyer for details,

Here are some upcoming Spring Events . . .

Neighborhood Clean-up - Saturday, March 18th - 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Soles for Souls

If you have any shoes you would like to donate to Soles For Souls, OTNA is helping CSUDH students and faculty gather shoes to meet a goal of one million pairs for those in need of shoes. Please tie, or rubber band together, and bring to our meeting or drop off in a bag at 1318 Engracia or 1538 Post Ave. before March 25th. Worn out shoes can also be utilized, as they recycle usable parts.

The March meeting is sponsored by The Yoga Harbor — Torrance's first neighborhood flow yoga studio. They offer straight-forward yoga and meditation classes to all fitness levels in a modern, personal, boutique environment. The Yoga Harbor • 1616 Gramercy Ave, Torrance, CA 90501 • www.theyogaharbor.com

If you haven't done so already, be sure to send in your dues -- just $10 for your household, per year!

Sincerely,
Janet H. Payne
OTNA President
